

Llanrug Community Council

Cemetery Rules

1. Introduction

1.1 These rules are for Llanrug Community Council Cemetery

1. Contact details

2.1 All funeral requests, enquiries, or comments must be made through the clerk,

Mr Meirion Jones
7 Nant y Glyn
Llanrug
Gwynedd
LL55 4AH

☎ 07769 112875

✉ clerc@llanrug.cymru

2.2 These Regulations are in addition to the provisions of the Local Authority Cemetery Order 1977 and any other appropriate regulations currently in force.

2. Admission to the cemetery

3.1 The cemetery is open to visitors every day of the year during the following times:

April – September 09:00 – 20:00
October – March 09:00 – 16:30

No person shall be allowed in the Cemetery outside these opening hours without the express permission of the clerk.

3.2 The cemetery is a place of peace and quiet meditation. It is also a workplace. Llanrug Community Council welcomes visitors to the cemetery but visitors are asked to respect the special nature of the site, the needs of other users, and safety factors. No games, sports, bicycle riding, skateboards, roller blades or similar are allowed in the cemetery. Alcohol and drugs must not be consumed within the cemetery, and anyone affected by such substances is not permitted to enter the cemetery.

- 3.3 Any person who causes a nuisance or disturbance, such as interfering with a funeral, grave, headstone, flowers, trees etc., will be required to leave the cemetery immediately and may be subject to subsequent legal proceedings.
- 3.4 Children under the age of 18 are welcomed in the cemetery but must be supervised by a responsible adult. It is especially important that children are not allowed to climb on any memorials, trees or other items in the cemetery.
- 3.5 No dogs are allowed in the cemetery except for guide dogs, hearing dogs or other recognised assistance dogs, without the express permission of the clerk.
- 3.6 Vehicles are permitted in the cemetery but must not exceed a 5mph speed limit and must obey any directions given to them by the council. Vehicles must adhere to the main roads and designated parking areas and avoid parking by causing nuisance or damage to any graves or grassed areas. The Council cannot accept responsibility for loss or damage to any vehicle and its contents whilst in the cemetery.
- 3.7 Visitors with disabilities or other special requirements are welcome to contact the council clerk who will be happy to assist.

4.0 General Rules

- 4.1 No member or staff of the Council may take any gratuity or undertake any paid private work of any kind in connection with the cemetery either in their own time or during their paid hours.
- 4.2 No person shall canvass or solicit business in the cemetery.
- 4.3 All fees for burials or memorial works must be paid in full to the Council in advance.
- 4.4 The council publishes a schedule of fees and charges annually. Residents within the community council area will be eligible for lower fees compared to non-residents. A resident is defined as someone who has resided within the Llanrug Community Council area within 5 years prior to the date of death.
- 4.5 The Council reserves the right to amend these regulations and to deal with any circumstances or situations not provided for in these regulations as necessary.

5 Graves

- 5.1 Graves available in the cemetery, are sacred. The choice of grave areas will be at the Council's final discretion, and in cases where a new grave needs to be opened, it must follow the existing row.
- 5.2 All burials will take place either in a private or public grave. Private graves are graves to which Exclusive Right of Burial has been granted. Public graves are graves that remain in the ownership of the Council and have not been given any specific rights.

- 5.3 It will not be possible for anyone to purchase a exclusive right of burial in Llanrug cemetery. The Exclusive Right of Burial already purchased allows a memorial to be placed on the grave.
- 5.4 Graves cannot be reserved. The Exclusive Right of Burial can only be transferred to another person through the legal process set out in the Local Authority Cemeteries Order 1977.
- 5.5. In public graves, the council undertakes to leave 20 years before allowing the burial of a person not related to the original burial. The Council may allow the burial of persons associated with the grave within 20 years. The council may allow a family member to purchase the Exclusive Right of Burial before the expiry of the 20-year period but the legal procedure for this will have to be followed.
- 5.6 Memorials are allowed on graves. Memorials must comply with the regulations given in 9 below.
- 5.7. The types of graves available are, lawn graves and cremation remain. Lawn graves are laid on a lawn and only headstone is allowed; Graves are available for burial of cremated remains only;
- 5.8. All graves shall be excavated and prepared for burial by the funeral directors or its appointed contractors only. No other person or company shall carry out any excavation in the cemetery except with the express permission of the clerk. The depth of each grave shall be determined by the Council in accordance with the provisions of the Local Authority Cemeteries Order 1977.
- 5.9. Following the burial, the undertaker or his contractor shall level the grave and either re-turf or topsoil and seed it as appropriate to the season.

6. Coffins

- 6.1 Coffins and urn for burial must be made from suitable biodegradable materials such as wood, wicker, stick, bamboo, wool, cardboard etc.

7. Ordering Burials

- 7.1. A date and time in the cemetery cannot be set aside temporarily. The undertaker will contact the clerk in the first instance to ask permission to bury, to ensure that there is no other funeral in the cemetery at the same time. Generally, there will be no more than one funeral in the cemetery in one day.
- 7.2. Confirmation of burial should be submitted by sending a notice of interment (a form provided by the council) to 7 Nant y Glyn, Llanrug, Gwynedd, LL55 4AH at least 48 hours before the intended date and time of the funeral. Receipt of the fully and correctly completed Notice of Burial will be confirmation of the provisional order.

- 7.3. The council must be given as much information as possible about the funeral in advance, especially if it is unusual.
- 7.4. In a grave where the right of burial has been purchased and to be re-opened for burial, the written consent of the registered grave owner must be given.
- 7.5. It is the responsibility of the person making the funeral arrangements to ensure that any memorial on the grave is removed if appropriate
- 7.6. The certificate issued by the Registrar of Births and Deaths or the Coroner's order must be delivered to the clerk within 5 working days of the funeral
- 7.7. The Council will set the appropriate fees to be paid for the funeral, which must be paid in full within 5 working days of the funeral.

8. Burials

- 8.1. Funerals (excluding bank or other public holidays) are usually only Monday to Saturday.
- 8.2. All funerals will be subject to the cemetery rules.
- 8.3. The time appointed for burial must be kept to.
- 8.4. Services at the cemetery must not be more than 60 minutes, unless special arrangements have been made with the council clerk.
- 8.5. It is the responsibility of the person making the funeral arrangements to arrange a Minister or Officer for the funeral if one is needed.
- 8.6. Any floral tributes from the funeral will be laid down for at least 14 days before being cleared (unless the family has already removed them). The council will provide recycling bins located within the shed and cleared flowers are expected to be placed in the bins.

9. Memorials

- 9.1. The Council has adopted a Monument Management Policy which deals with current and future installations of memorials, security checks and making unstable memorials safe. Stonemasons carrying out work in the cemeteries must comply with the Council's Monument Management Policy.
- 9.2. All memorials fixed in the cemetery must comply with British Standard 8415.
- 9.3. Only those memorial masons' businesses that are BRAMM or NAMM accredited, and those memorial masons with a current BRAMM or NAMM Repair License, will be able to work in the cemetery. Repairers who do not hold a BRAMM or NAMM Repair License are only permitted to work under the direct supervision of a mason who holds a BRAMM or NAMM Handyman License.

- 9.4. Memorials are permitted on purchased and public graves.
- 9.5. Memorials are not permitted other than those specified by a BRAMM or NAMM accredited memorial mason. Fences cannot be erected around a grave or the space defined. No objects should be placed along the grave.
- 9.6. Before any memorial can be erected or works carried out to an existing memorial, an application must be submitted to the Clerk on the appropriate form provided by the Council. The grave owner must sign the form to give their consent for the memorial / proposed works. Upon approval by the Council, permission shall be granted to the responsible Memorial Carpenter.
- 9.7. Memorials must be constructed of environmentally friendly materials. The Council reserves the right to refuse an application for any memorial it deems unsuitable.
- 9.8. There is no limit on the size of a memorial, but it must be at least 3” thick. The Council will grant the right to erect the memorial. Council will not allow ‘kerbsets’ to be installed
- 9.9. The mason must enter the name of the company on the back of the stone towards the bottom in letters not exceeding 1” tall or with a relevant sticker.
- 9.10. Memorial masons must remove all erections from the cemetery at the end of their work and must leave the area in a tidy condition. Memorials cannot be stored in the cemetery prior to re-installation following burial - the memorial mason appointed must remove the memorials from the site before the grave is excavated.

10. Care of Graves and Memorials

- 10.1. All memorials erected are solely the responsibility of the proprietor and the Council will not be responsible for any damage to or caused by the memorial. The Council reserves the right to repair or make safe any memorial which the Council considers unsafe or in disrepair, and the Council reserves the right to recover any costs from the registered proprietor. The Council will carry out routine security checks on all memorials and notify the grave owner at the last registered address of any works necessary to make the memorial safe. The grave owner will be given a period of 6 months from the date of the letter to carry out the necessary repairs. The Council reserves the right to carry out any work on memorials to make them safe until such work has been completed. If the grave owner does not arrange for the repairs to be carried out, the Council may repair or remove the memorial at the owner's expense.
- 10.2. The Council recommends that grave owners draw up an insurance plan for their memorial.
- 10.3. Grave spaces must be kept in a tidy condition, and all litter must be removed from the site.
- 10.4. All flower holders or other items left on graves must be made of non-breakable material. Any items left on graves are at the owners' risk and the Council cannot be held responsible for any theft or damage to them however caused. The Council may remove any items from any grave that are likely to cause danger, damage or offense to all users of the cemetery or interfere with site maintenance.

- 10.5. No trees may be planted in the cemetery. The Council may remove any plants it deems unsuitable or interfere with maintenance.
